

Your Corporate Volunteering Day at Thrive!

- Dependent on location, a typical day lasts from 9.30 or 9.45 am to 3.30 or 4pm and includes a welcome, tea/coffee, an introduction to Thrive and the work of the charity, two sessions working in our beautiful gardens and lots of fresh air and fun!
- We make sure you have breaks and an hour for lunch (which we ask you to supply). These times provide the perfect opportunity for employees to ask any questions, and gain a better understanding of the people Thrive work with and how we help make such positive changes to their lives.
- We will also take photographs through the day which we will send you, and we can publicise your efforts on social media!

Why Thrive?

- Thrive have been successfully hosting our popular corporate social responsibility days for many years - we are well practiced in hosting and supervising these!
- Your Thrive site coordinator ensures all aspects of the day run smoothly, working with you both before the event - to ensure you are aware of the arrangements and prepared - and on the day - to ensure everyone has a rewarding and fun time!
- The feedback we receive is overwhelmingly positive - people love working in our gardens, learning about the work we do and rewardingly giving something back to their local communities!
