Digital Marketing Officer

Job Description

Thrive’s vision is that gardening is actively encouraged as part of personal health and wellbeing management and Social & Therapeutic Horticulture (STH) services are available wherever people live.

We’re looking for a marketing expert with a flair for digital marketing to help Thrive reach new support through our website, campaigns and other marketing activities. Managing the Thrive website, you’ll be creative, experienced in content marketing and passionate about promoting the positive work that Thrive does to new and existing audiences.

Using a data-driven and audience centric approach, you will deliver creative and impactful marketing and communications for the whole organisation that grows our brand and supports income generation. By boosting awareness and conversions using our online and offline channels, you’ll be supporting the delivery of Thrive’s new organisational strategy.

At Thrive, we care about employee wellbeing. We offer flexible working arrangements to accommodate a good work life balance, competitive leave entitlement and pension, as well as a professional and inspiring working environment.

If you are a confident marketeer and have experience of working in a marketing and comms environment, we can offer you a rewarding challenge. Want to get a real feel for what we do? Take a look at Cynthia’s Story.
